Introductory Comments

This is in response to the Advisory Action requesting a Declaration of unexpected results.

During the first telephone interview on January 17, 2007 with Applicant's counsel, John C. Thomas, the Examiner indicated that he would allow the case. On January 19, 2007, the Examiner left a voicemail message indicating that he withdrew his allowance. On January 22, 2007 Applicant's counsel asked for the basis of the withdrawal and the Examiner indicated that quality control was requiring that Applicant show unexpected results.

Applicant's counsel asked the Examiner about quality control and if Applicant's counsel could speak with them. The Examiner indicated that his supervisor Stan Silverman was the person responsible for the requirement and that Applicant's counsel could call Stan Silverman.
